A Good Trick.

The theory of benefit payments under the agricultural adjustment set called for collection of processing taxes to meet the obligation it was abvious of course that the processing taxes eventually would be paid by constimuts

AAA officials have estimated that about 50 0 000 000 of proceeding taxes had been collected by the smil of October 1935 At that time a multitude of sults to preven further imposition of such taxes were eponed and collections virtually ceased

Conjecture as yea the possibility of regaining the money disbursed to farmers under the MA program should interest consumers must of all. If it were possible to collect the money what would it mean

Obvinush it would mean that they would pin the processing taxes twice &s con sumers in the first instance and as tax payers to the federal government in the second instance. Since the government could not regula benefit payments to farmers it would have to take the mone; out of the public tressury

An Unpleasant Suggestion.

Justly proud of the fact that its financial affairs are in good orner. In contrast to the Democratic committee which still has a heavy deficit after almost three years In a position to make assessments to pawith a clear surplus of more than a quarter o(a million dollars

I ct there is an unpleasant suggestion in the contrast which sensible Republican leaders should its to discount That is the suggestion that the party's financial dition reflects the intention of weal hi members to spend large sums of money to defeat the Roosevelt administra ion. There can be such a thing as too much money in politics as the Republican party has tearned at various times

Defining Good Faith | in Government

Roosevelt's Insistence on Fulfilling AAA Contracts Recalls Others Not Fulfilled.

By DAVID LAWRPACY copyrishs 1838, by The Harles Mar WARHITAGTON Jan 10—This is a story about good faith in government.

Presiden' Roosevelt insists that good is in requires the federal government to pay the formers the money it contracted to give them even though the supreme court of he United States has said the law urder which the contracts were made law under which the contracts were made horor he contrarts but congress adopted a law forbidding the citizen to zo to court to prove his less unless he filed the suit within aix months. Here is what the suppleme court of the Luited ditates asid in the farmous gold clause case on the subject of good faith. The fact that the United States may not be suited visibout its consent is a mater of procedure which does not affect the legal and binding character of its contrarts.

legal and binding character of its contracts.

While the rongress is under no duty to provide remedies through the courts contractual obligation still exists and despite infirmities of procedure remains binding upon the conscience of the sovereign. The Roosevelt administration is embarking now on a course that prefers one set of citizens to another in the matter of citizens to another in the matter of honoring obligations of the government of the United States. The government having contracted with the farmers who have done their part in reducing increase owes the money to the farmers. No voice will be raised against this in congress chore to ignore another contract written in a government bond and upheld by the supreme court of the United States is one not so easy to explain.

As far as good failth is concerned an other and more striking instance of its violation has come up this week. The American people it will to recalled spoke an overwhelming protest against publicity pravisions of the revenue law of 1903. The pink slip which was to embody the Jata became the subset of rullon wild discussion and congress by a heavy yets repealed the provision.

Here was no doubt then of what the American people wanted done—they wanted the publicity idea repealed no that kid mapers and snoopers and extortionists could not get hold of what would prove to he an excellent prospect list. But the pink silp provision was repealed an other section of the law was inadvertently left intouched. Under this provision the secretary of the treasury was to submit an annual report making known to congress a list of persons receiving $15 500 a No stipulation to the law said that the ters are more extensive than those formerly held by the justices of peace.

Whereis the justices were restricted to civil actions in which the amount of money involved was less than $300, the municipal court can handle civil cases ranging as high as $1,000, thus helping to relieve the flow of comparatively small civil cases into common pleas court.

Start of Criminal Cases

Virtually all criminal actions in the city and a majority in the county originate in the municipal court. If the punishment involved in the charge consists of a juil or workhouse sentence or a fine, or any combination of these, the municipal court has final jurisdiction except in the event of error or appeal. Only in felony cases in which pentientiary or reformatory punishment or capital punishment are involved are the cases turned over to the grand jury. Even these must pass what is known as "preliminary" handling in the lower court.

The dispatch in handling cases

but is retuctant to comment on the rescrees? of the court, saying he prefers to let the records of the court speak for themselves.

The municipal court in Marion came about intreby through the efforts of members of the bar. They successfully advocated the establishment of the court to replace two justices of pence and mayor's court for Marion and Marion township and to serve townships of the county that have no justices of the peace. The court disjurisdiction in criminal matters is countywide.

The court did more than take over the work of the justices of peace and the mayor's court. It is jurisdiction in criminal matters is jurisdiction in criminal matters by jurisdiction in criminal matters and the mayor's court. It is jurisdiction in criminal matters parallels that of the jud mayor's court and the masses ment of 50 cents and the assessment against the person receiving payments through the wage assignment assigns the person receiving payments through the wage in operation about the time the court was set up cots amounting to $2.50 could be assessed against the person whose wages were garnisheed.
